PRESS PHOTO OF THE YEAR: B. Postle

Tattersall's new chairman Tony McSweeney with his charming wife Mollie.

A.J. (TONY) McSWEENEY. Tony is a cheerful and colourful personality and through service on house committee coupled with his chairmanship of the race committee his contribution is excellent. He's been interested in racing all his life. Owned and shared many outstanding horses. His best Silver Sharp, triple derby winner, conquered the mighty Gunsynd in each of those classics. Tony has featured strongly in the breeding industry. He is a director and has a wide business background. His many friends will be pleased with his appointment. Tony resides at Rose Bay with wife Mollie — they have two married children. Son John, a Club member, is married to Alexandria, a leading dress designer. Daughter Angela is married to very active solicitor and Club member Colin Love. It is a very happy, close-knit family unit.

SPECIAL NOTE: It's of special importance for members to note that Tony attends the Club daily.

I rate the Sydney Cup Week Black Tie Night as possibly the best evening staged in Tattersall's Club. I do hope you can be there. I would suggest you book early.

Leading jockey Ron Quinton takes a good look at the magnificent Sydney Cup. This picture was taken at the Black Tie Sydney Cup Dinner in 1982.

CLUB SUPPORT

Business and clubs must be backed by good administration. Tattersall's Club has been fortunate to have the expertise of our secretary Norman Smith. Years ago I saw him in action as chief administration secretary for the vast suburban and country theatres. He then moved on to help the RSL, and then eventually came to Tattersall's.

He is a now a part of the Tattersall's Club team. We now have a new and enthusiastic chairman Tony McSweeney and I'm sure he will introduce progressive ideas to keep Tattersall's in its top-ranking position it enjoys now. All this cannot be done without the support of all members. How about shaping up and giving Tony and his committee your wholehearted support? You are the key to the success and well-being of your Club.

NOTE THE BLUE LOOK

1973 saw the 50-dollar note — it was not a colourful impact with Smithy looking out at us. The new 100-dollar note has "hit the street". Sir Douglas Mawson in his underzero condition gear and a lesser-light astronomer, John Tebbutt, are coldly displayed in blues and greys. Hope you score a hundred or two soon. It's easy to count in hundreds isn't it?

WINING, DINING AND CLUB NEWS

Well-respected Club member, Rothman's executive Gil Stone, hosted the Rothman's National Press Awards for 1984. Charming wife Janis accompanied him. Party included fellow executive and Club member, the kindly Bill Kelleher with wife Barbara. The winning competition entry is our cover piece.

President of the House the Honourable Douglas McLelland, a Tattersall's Club member made the presentation. Some 2,000 entries were accepted in this competition. It is the richest of its kind in the world. Rothman's must be congratulated for their generous sponsorship of this News Presentation Award. — Ed.

Neville Merchant rates as one of the Club regulars — a very pleasing personality, uses the Club wisely and well with his host of friends — jovial

Robert Hodgson is generally not too far away when Neville visits Tattersall's.

Rick Davis arranged a birthday evening for Mrs Beryl Guilfoyle. It was also the return to Sydney of Mr John and Mrs Beryl Guilfoyle from up north. So it was a dual reason to enjoy a happy night at Tattersall's.

Member Wal Bradley was very happy in the family gathering of the Misses Ann and Robyn Bradley with Malcolm and Lindy Lloyd-Owen to celebrate their mother Jan Bradley's birthday. Family evenings are very special at Tattersall's — and nights to remember.

Len Catts celebrated his 70th birthday early this year. Party included wife Ruth, their three daughters and sonsin-law, Judy and John Rosenblum, Dianne and Barry Joseph and Marilyn and David Guralnek with their eight grand-children — ages ranging from 21 years to seven years. Also included in the party were Mr Catts' sister, Francine Epstein, with her daughter and son-inlaw, Belinda and Jack Frisch and Mr Catts' sister-in-law Peggy Kauffmann. A toast was also given to their grand-daughter, Caryl Rosenblum, in lieu of her 21st birthday on January 24.

A lovely birthday cake made for Mr Catts by his daughter Marilyn was enjoyed by all.

Kevin Ryan and Mary Emeloh were at Tattersall's early this year. It was a family party arranged by Kevin to entertain members of family from Lismore. They were Mrs Tuckett, daughter and grandsons Mark and Dane Tuckett.

Member Vernon and Anne Brink celebrated their daughter's coming-of-age with family and friends. Deborah looked lovely and very happy. Other daughters were Jennifer and Mandy with friends David, James and Martin. It's an ideal way to have an evening of special significance celebrated at Tattersall's Club.

David Vincent was host of a very special evening at Tattersall's; it was in celebration of the wedding anniversary for David and Sue Vincent. The party included Stephen Vincent, Kirsten Vincent, Gwenda Vincent, Audrey Berry and Aub Berry.

Robert Bookalill was indeed proud to arrange a celebration for son Greg's 16th birthday with the family. Greg's grandfather Mr Ernest Bookalill was a prominent member of Tattersall's until his death thirteen years ago. It was fitting that Greg celebrated at Tattersall's where his grandfather had so many good friends and many pleasant evenings too.

Mr Tom Murray was pleased to host a party dinner to celebrate the 60th birthday and retirement of Denis Mercier. Present were Denis and Leone Mercier and daughters Suzanne with Sarah and her husband David. Member Michael Murray was in party too.

A very happy evening for Ann and Brian Fogerty with Michael, David and Stephen. For Michael celebrating his graduation from Sydney University and his introduction to Tattersall's in his own right as a new member; for David — a birthday and congratulatory celebration on his graduating as a chef. His mentor, internationally-known master chef, Bob Sone and other friends David Jellings and Kim Gilbank completed the happy party. No doubt the menu passed the exacting test with this august group. — Ed.

Frank and Jo Waldron were so happy to arrange an evening at Tattersall's to entertain Frank's mother Mrs Lilian Waldron up on holidays from Melbourne. Party also included three sons Peter, David and Anthony. It was a real thrill for Mrs Lilian Waldron to enjoy a family night in Sydney.

Denis Pearson and family plus old friends had a "get-together". Mr and Mrs D. Pearson, Mr and Mrs A. Jones (Mrs Pearson's parents), together with six guests. The evening was to celebrate Denis' new business venture or "New South Wales Providores Wholesale Food Distributors". We wish him joy and success in his future.

Timothy Kelly found the ideal way to enjoy John O'Brien's birthday — a night at Tattersall's. In party with him was Mrs Joan O'Brien, Mr and Mrs Geoffrey Puckeridge. It was a very pleasant evening.

Just look at the pride and joy that only a fisherman can display. Popular member Ray Walsh took time off from his busy South Pacific control for RCA to land this big schnapper — it won the No. 1 award in a big two-day fish-off. "It's hard to be a front runner as I caught it on the morning of the first day — I now know what a golfer feels like when he leads the field on the first round of a 72-hole event".

 $Congrats\ Ray.-Ed.$

Member Wal Sidway and his wife Beryl arranged a farewell party dinner for their "Brother" in Industry, really it was Brother Industries Australia. In the group were Alex Nagase (managing director) and wife Michi, Ken Segura and wife Keiko, Keith Matsui and wife Misaka and member Kerry Sidaway and wife Bronwyn. The guests in particular were thrilled with the evening.

Club member John Devitt, a Gold Medal swimming winner of yesteryear, is one of the keenest men you'll find working for the success of the coming Olympic Games - good on you John!

Member Rob Jarman and wife Norma arranged a dinner party for ten to celebrate the birthdays of their daughter Anne-Maree and daughter-in-law Jennifer. As a great way to celebrate at Tattersall's.

Member Brian Robertson, efficient and busy AJC administration officer comes to Tattersall's to wind down. His busy schedule at headquarters calls for the relaxation that Tattersall's offers to all members and he really enjoys it with his many friends.

He should be happy - AJCcommitteeman and member Jack Ingham is in love with his champion Street Cafe - it is really good to see Jack get a good horse. It will win many races.

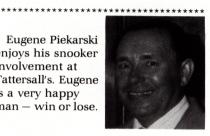

Ken Ranger, one of our really fine Clubmen, a gentleman on and off the race track. He is a keen judge of horses his colourful career as a top-flight bookmaker won him many friends. He is a quiet kind man and always a pleasure to meet. - Ed.

Eugene Piekarski enjoys his snooker involvement at Tattersall's. Eugene is a very happy man - win or lose.

Arthur Cook entertains his host of friends at the Club. A top-flight bowler - in fact he could be a professional if he so desired - he's a dedicated worker for his assurance business. He appears to be a front-runner in that sphere, too.

Earlier this year in the dining room of our Club a very bright party was celebrated. It was an annual party of the partners and staff of solicitors. Carroll and O'Dea. Some 26 of the staff (it was a STAFF ONLY affair) attended. The band arranged by the organisers, provided great music for the party.

It was indeed a happy night. A skit on the song Galway Bay was well rendered in Irish brogue. Another member of the party sang a song about a pawn shop with the pawnbroker going to war with a gun from his shop and also a song about love and diamonds. He was helped in his rendition by the audience. It was all good fun.

Other songs were appreciated not only by the party but by all the members and friends who were dining at the Club that night. All present declared it a jolly happy and successful party and management were congratulated for arranging the band's attendance. The staff promised to work harder this coming year in the hope it will happen again next year.

Very active member Anthony Berkman is getting ready for another busy year in the snowfields. Preseason talk suggests it will be one of the best . . . let's hope it reaches all expectations.

Smiling Allen Walker, a very active member, giving great financial support to Tattersall's Club's Sportsman of the Year Award. It's a great idea and will prove very popular with many members.

In March the Ski Club held their annual meeting. The meeting was followed by a dinner with wives in the dining room at 7.30 pm. Those attending were Peter and Shirley Evans (president, Anthony and Gail Berkman (secretary), Peter and Gabby Burrows (treasurer). Graham and Rhonda Smith, George and Ena Andrews with Peter and Deirdre Magnus.

The Ski Club section is very active and all they need is good snow to give them an excellent year.

SKI & SEASON EXPECTATIONS ... MOUNTAINOUS

by Peter Evans

With record snowfalls in the Northern Hemisphere this year Tattersall's skiers will be hoping for some good conditions in the Australian Alps during July 1984. Although whether our seasons follow on the northern winters has never been fully understood, skiers, being a hopeful group, will nevertheless be rubbing their hands in anticipation of a good season.

Our first outing will again be the family week at Roslyn Lodge, Thredbo from Saturday, June 30 to Saturday, July 7 and notices and application forms have already been forwarded to ski club members.

The Roslyn week will be followed by the Wirruna men's week from Saturday, July 14 to Saturday, July 21 and as in past years, this week is expected to be a sell-out. Any Tattersall's members who would like to join either of our outings are invited to contact Tattersall's office or any member of the Ski Club committee.

During the "off" season Tattersall's committee have decided to record the history of the various sporting clubs within Tattersall's. With help from Ski Club original president Bill Rowe and active ski member Charles Coppa, assisted by Basil Phillips, we were able to put together an interesting history of Tattersall's Ski Club which, when published should please those interested in the early days of skiing with Tattersall's.

During the summer months of 1984 Tattersall's members were active in both USA and Europe, skiing in at least eight resorts. Arising from this experience, there will be two possible tours available to members in January and February 1985; one to Aspen and Vail and the other to Yugoslavia and Austria. Each tour will be good value for money and details will be circulated towards the end of the local ski season.

In the meantime, make sure you have your reservation lodged at Tattersall's office for either/or both Roslyn and Wirruna.

A couple of happy ski men — no prizes for names — they'll be there on the slopes this year, too!

SECOND FLOOR REGULARS

Members Sir Nicholas Shehadie, OBE and his good friend Tom Powell. You'll see this grand combination around the snooker tables. "Nick" loves a game and of course Tom is only a spectator these days. He's as keen as ever and a very good judge of "the quick and the dead" when there's a friendly clash on the tables.

VENDORS OF QUALITY YEARLINGS

Our Roving Camera . . .

- 1. Masseur George on the job at the Athletic Section of Tattersall's Club. Many members make bookings for a massage and a special rub down. George is one of the most proficient and skilful in his calling.
- 2. "Just give him more time to concentrate and practise maybe he can win again this year" is probably what Syd Lane is saying to last year's snooker champion's wife Mrs Michael Fitzgerald.
- 3. Tom Bellew, president of the NSW Rugby Football League and general manager John Quayle with Tattersall's treasurer David Dransfield at a function in the Club.
- 4. Homer Jones gives Harold Hill his method of delivering a winning bowl both are active members of the Tattersall's Club Bowling Section.
- 5. Ken McDonald loves his snooker — you'll find him most days at the Club.

Brilliant Star Night Dinner Show

Tattersall's Club staged a Black Tie Dinner to celebrate the return engagement of the popular star Max Bygraves. The evening rated in the very top bracket of entertainment and songs. Treasurer David Dransfield welcomed guests — it was a capacity booking and was really a great performance of chairman Tony McSweeney to get the numbers. I liked treasurer David — looking round and saying — "Judging by the happy faces — Tattersall's Club is alive and well".

- 1. Max "hams it up" after he paid a visit to the Chairman's Room.
- 2. George and Mary Rohanna with cricketing great Alan Davidson, MBE and wife Betty.
- 3. John Messara and the jovial Sir Clyde Kennedy, OBE.
- 4. Mr and Mrs Bill Ritchie, Mr and Mrs Don Storey and Ralph Lucas.
- 5. Alec and Betty Wilshire, Beth Bown, Audrey Dawson, Arthur Bown, Bernie and Gerry Dawson and the Donaghy's: Gerry and Trish.
- 6. Mr and Mrs Colin Love (second left) entertained a fine party, the Bob Blanns are opposite.
- 7. Mona Spencer, Mrs Max Bygraves, Mrs Fred Wastie and Mrs Lionel Abrahams.
- 8. Committeeman Norman Rogers and his distinguished party.
- 9. It was a happy party group with host Terry Walker (at right) and his attractive daughter in the right party mood.
- 0. Lloyd Harrison, Janet and Ted Johnston, Meredith and Peter Mooney with Helen Morrison.

AVES BLACK TIE DINNER SHOW

SWIMMING POOL IS FULL OF ACTION:

by Sam Block

The outstanding event of last year was the Christmas Scramble in which 68 members competed for the goodies displayed and donated by the many generous Club members.

The event was taken out by Ken Glover's "Redskins" from Russell Debney's "Cowboys" with Mike McCormack's "Buffalos" and Norman Rogers' "Bison" close up.

The prizes consisted of toiletries donated by John Waterhouse of Faberge, wines by courtesy of Don McWilliams, chocolates from Ken Francis, golf bags, biscuits, jams, assorted sweets and even carrier bags to haul away the spoils.

Honours of the December Point Score went to legal eagle sportsman John Ward with a total of 41 points from Johnny Barker 34½, and consistent David Castle 32½.

January Point Score was taken out by Michael Rowland-Smith scoring 30 points from unlucky Gordon Salier and Tony King dead heating for second place. Mike has recently returned from New Guinea, I feel sure a lot more wins are in store.

February monthly was won by Brian Holmes scoring 40 points from Bill Debney 36, Johnny Barrell 29, Gary Wilson 26, John Reid 24, Nick Heath 24, John Ward 24, Brian has made a remarkable improvement during this season. Keep up the good work.

John Ward has certainly blitzed his opponents and forged to a good lead in "Tony" McSweeney's Silver Sharpe Trophy with a score of 128, from John Nicholas 108, Tony King 104 and Rick Glover 102, however we still have four months to go and it is no open and shut result.

John certainly seems to have that legal type of mind that can count the seconds in a computerised manner, but the handicapper will catch up eventually.

Racing has been very keen and fast times have been recorded continually both in the 40 and 80 yard events. Johnny Fuller 16.8, 39.4 and 40.2, John in his final equalled the flying start pool record of 16.6 held by former champ Neil Rogers. John Stubbs 18.6 and 18.9 and 44.6, John Nicholas 20.6 and 47, Roger Farrell 20.5 and 46.5, Mike McCormack 20.6 and 44.5, Russell Debney 19.4, 19.5 and 45.6, Hugh Keller 19.8 and 46.

The fast times in single events have stimulated the interest to fever point in Tom Powell's Trophy for individual wins. The leaders being John Nicholas 8½, John Stubbs 5, John Keating 5, Chris Gunson 5, Rick Glover 4, Tony King 4 and W. Debney 3½.

Nice to have Gavin Thomson back in the swim recording a smart 80 yard victory losing four seconds off his handicap.

John Nicholas having ricked his shoulder decided to swim breaststroke and put in a time trial of 30 seconds. He won both heat and final in great style being docked three seconds for his effort.

Both Andrew Barrell and Russell Debney finish over the 80 yards with great determination, I am sure they are trained by T.J. Smith, Esq.

Nice to have Club Champion Greg Goold participating again. Greg has moved his office out of town and finds it a bit difficult to make the luncheon hour. He made his presence felt with an effortless win, swimming the 40 yards in 18.6 seconds.

Johnny Fuller returned from overseas, was in great form swimming 16.6 and 16.8. Unfortunately John will be leaving for Europe in the next few weeks until early in 1985, and will be looking forward to your return

Newcomers welcomed were Mase Ryan, Robert Miller, Jerry Glass (son of former native son swimmer Ken) and Andrew Isles (son of Darrell), all of whom show a smart form of ability.

Derek Jack has undergone a nasty operation but had news to the effect that it has been a great success and expect Derek will be back with us in the next few months. Will be looking forward to your return.

Former bookmaker Leo Stevens and father of Ron is at present an inmate of Bradleys Head Private Hospital, called upon him but Ron had taken him joyriding. Hope to see you in the near future.

Had the pleasure of bumping into a former Club Champion Carl Phillips during the month. Carl was without doubt the most stylish exponent of the crawl in Australia.

Bill Orme will be taking part in a walk from Crete to Scotland. Hope both the feet and shoes last the distance.

In April Nick Heath will be taking part in the 20 kilometres Great Scout and Guide Walkabout. The Committee of Tattersall's Swimming Club have decided to sponsor this worthy cause, all monies go towards a new Jamboree site, donations will be greatly appreciated, but I'm afraid the tax man will not be co-operative.

Last but not least by any means the 80 yards Hillston and Godhard Ranger Trophies are at an interesting stage with redoubtable Mike McCormack leading the field with 109 points and 10 wins and Andrew Barrell 8½ wins.

Terry Forrest suffered a severe heart attack and is in intensive care. Keep the old chin up Terry.

Those magnificent men ready to fly down the pool in the Christmas Scramble - it's a fun gathering - you've just got to be there to know the thrill of the involvement.

BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER

Big Tournament Can Put Money in the Pocket, Too!

by DOUG JORDAN

Fellow members please record in your diary the following dates for our Gala 1984 Billiards and Snooker Tournament.

Entries Close May 4.
Ballot Closes May 11.
Ballot Drawn May 14 - 4 pm.
Ballot Auction May 28 - 6 pm.

The adjoining advertisement will again give you all the details. You'll note the fine awards to be won by sinking the ball in the pocket at the right moment.

The great interest in snooker shown by our members was recently illustrated by the mini-tournament at present being conducted. Seventy members are competing. A smorgasbord was provided, a novel auction conducted and a happy night was enjoyed by all.

Some swallow-catching trials in preparation for the big annual 1984 Snooker Tournament have already been witnessed. Eugene Piekarski, Col Pearce (Mr Versatile), Ken McDonald (The Fox), Bruce Cox (as kind as a kitten) to name a few, are playing brilliantly.

You can rely on your billiards and snooker sub-committee to carefully assess all handicaps in their endeavour to give all competitors a fair chance.

You may see the beautiful trophies kindly donated by our staunch supporters and friends Tom Powell and George Mousally in the second floor showcase.

Don't forget to chalk your cue before you shoot not after you miscue.

Meet you all on and before May 29 which is the date the snooker tournament starts.

CLUB PERSONALITIES AND SPORTSMEN SERIES

TATTERSALL'S MEMBER DES RENFORD, MBE

Top of Any Wave — A Swim Giant!

Des with his youngest son Murphy, who was then 12 years of age (1974).

Des Renford is still rated amongst the world's greatest endurance swimmers. He cut his swimming teeth by winning the NSW State Title in 1937.

He was a navy war man in the South West Pacific area and went on to Japan for the Occupation Force involvement.

His first swim marathon was in 1967 across Port Phillip to Melbourne. Des was later to swim in the 60 km Murray River Marathon in record time of 19 hours. He flipped off 40 laps across Bondi Beach and later 50 laps to establish a covering distance record of 14 hours 38 minutes.

His marathon swim calls have taken him to races in Canada, America, Holland and England. He's got a record in the cold Derwent River for 40 km — 10 hours 54 minutes which brings shivers to his challengers.

His first English Channel swim was in 1970. He's chalked up 19 times in all. Des became the "King of the Channel" when he swam it three times in a month in 1970!

Bravery awards have come his way but he doesn't want to talk about them. He's a very retiring man. Won the Sportsman of the Year in 1975.

Des has a heart as big as his swimming efforts — he's a tireless worker for charity, a very self-effacing man. His gentle manner endears him to his many friends. One of his really great mates is committeeman Norman Rogers.

Des is a really happy family man. His lovely wife and son Murphy seem to be always around to add that bit of balm to dad when he sets off on a big swim.

Tattersall's Club GOLF CLUB

NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

Like many other organisations the Golf section has reached the cross-roads. To survive, we are going to need more active support from more of the members. We have over 300 members on our mailing list, but each outing seems to see a hard core of 30 or 40 regulars and their visitors. If it were not for the visitors, the field normally would not be large enough for the various clubs to accept our bookings. Once again, we have endeavoured to arrange the best courses available, and we hope to see much larger fields in 1984.

Now to the Championships, once again conducted at Manly. The senior players put the younger players to shame, in hot, humid conditions, with veteran Jack McCarthy taking out the Championship with a fine score of 76, hotly pursued by Peter Dind and Sam Macaskill on 77 with another veteran Ralph Davies having the same score. Bob Barraket 78, Jim Grant 79 and Cliff Robinson 80 also returned good scores.

"B" grade was taken out by Basil Phillips with a 93.

Popular athletic type Peter Dind turned in a splendid nett 66 to win the "A" grade handicap. The Golf Club's virtual "one man committee" Rod Fisher won "B" grade with a fine nett of 68.

"Good guy" golf competitor Gordon Salier smiled gently as he received the "C" grade handicap trophy.

The handicap winners were "A" grade, Peter Dind nett 66, "B" grade Rod Fisher 68, and "C" grade, Gordon Salier 72.

The field was small with only 64 starters, but all enjoyed the golf and the fine food and hospitality that Manly afforded members until well into the evening.

Epicureans' Very Successful Day-Night Endurance Test!

by Peter Golding

While maybe it wasn't exactly in the Robert de Castella class, it was, nevertheless, a marathon of some proportions. It involved about 30 Epicureans and their wives and friends and the running time was almost 11 hours — 10 hours 50 minutes to be exact.

The marathon started at 1pm at the Theatre Royal one recent February Saturday, moved to the Club about 5pm, then back to the theatre at 7pm, and got to the finishing line a few minutes before midnight.

The event? That marvellous production of Nicholas Nickleby, with an excellent dinner in the Club dining room during the half time interval.

There is no doubt that a few of the participants approached the marathon with a degree of apprehension as to whether they would be able to see out the distance, but they needn't have worried. Everyone became so totally engrossed in the show that the time just flew. Even if the seats did get a little harder that minor discomfort was a mere nothing compared with the delights of the stage performance.

The evening ... or should we say the day-night ... was the first event in the 1984 Epicureans' calendar and certainly launched the year's programme in great style. Indeed, Chief Epicurean Neville Amy says that while the next event may not be as long as he promises that it will be just as entertaining.

So, watch for the next big announcement!

Chief Epicurean committeeman Neville Amy with wife Peg head the evening arranged by this very active section of the Club.

HANDBALL:

STATE SINGLES ATTRACTS BIG FIELD

by PETER ASHBY

A star-studded field will contest the 1984 NSW Handball Singles Championship.

This is an open event and entries include previous winners of Tattersall's Plate with the present Plate holder, Neil Rogers, one of the favourites.

Tattersall's Plate is a knockout singles championship restricted to two entries from each Handball Club and past winners of this prestigious event include Ray Hopkins and Ron Rogers of Tattersall's Club and Noel Vella, a representative of the Bondi Icebergs Handball Club.

Two other members of the Bondi Handball Club who have held the State Singles title will be again hoping to take out the title. They are Frank Coldwell and John Ford. Both players are fit and are playing well enough to be certain quarter-finalists.

Don Hudson appears certain to be the leader of the Tamarama Club contingent and evergreen star, Gary Stubbs, from the Clovelly Club, is capable of making any finalist in any championship stretch out.

Great champion handballer of past years, Bruce Galea, donated the shield and promotes the event annually as a memorial to the memory of his sportsman father, Perce. Perce was a great handball competitor in years gone by and always supported the Clovelly Club.

This year's winner does, however, seem likely to come from either Tattersall's or Bondi with Ron and Neil Rogers the probabilities from Tattersall's and Noel Vella, Frank Coldwell and John Ford the big possibilities from Bondi.

The dark horse of the field is Jim Robison, a Bondi player capable, on his day, of beating the world's champions.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

The draw sheets for the A, B and C grade championships are on the notice board in the Athletic Department.

Players are urged to refer to them urgently, to work your fingers to the phone and please, please me by playing just one game in the next three weeks. Such a flurry of activity would encourage your committee to organise a doubles handicap night with the winner's prize an overseas trip, of course, with a guarantee that such munificence will not endanger any player's amateur status.

Since handball is the sole remaining bastion against the encroachment of professionalism in sport, your committee will guard your untainted standing in the ranks of sportsmen in the hope that our grand game will be admitted to future Olympic Games programmes.

If you have any doubt as to our credibility check with Charles Robinson.

JAZERSIZE

Your way to the top.

"One must not only be sanguine in these times of duress and stress, one must also be an optimist," says Club member Peter Ashby.

He believes in looking upon the cheerier side has not only guaranteed sanity but has maintained his ambition of being the recipient of the Sportsman of the Year award for our bicentenary year, 1988.

He says "my dedication can win for me the Tattersall's Club Sportsman of the Year. Other such awards may follow as a matter of course." — Then he gives his wry smile.

The scenario, great new word for general usage, for this launching will be the Tattersall's Jazersize Club. It has a unique beginning style.

The committee, etc, and membership etc, at the moment comprises one member, Peter Ashby.

"Jazersize is more than a dull exercise programme. All shapes, sizes and ages enjoy this method of acquiring fitness with fun. Ease tension, shed inhibition and shape up using a carefully designed plan for cardio-vascular, emotional and metabolic improvement."

So when he explains and explodes this great Club idea of his more fully — we'll all know more.

One thing is certain, Peter is a real JAZERSIZE fan, you've only got to look at him to see that.

- Ed.

HANDBALLS

Your committee is totally aware of the lack of handballs on the courts at Tattersall's but it is always active in endeavouring to discover a source of supply of such an important item for a 31 upper. Samples from as far afield as Hong Kong were considered and rejected. Enquiries are continuing but desperate players are advised to rub the coating from a tennis ball of Australian manufacture.

CANBERRA SCENE FOR INTERSTATE CARNIVAL

Ushers in plenty of bowling activity on the local scene.

Congratulations Perth Tattersall's, Western Australia in winning a magnificent tournament by one shot from our Sydney Tattersall's team with City Tattersall's a close third — our thanks have been duly forwarded to president Ron Fisher of the Canberra Club, to president Jack Doeman (Bowls) and his committee and to John Peel (honorary secretary).

Harold Hill represented our Club at the Canberra race meeting. Deputising for president Tim who was on duty at the War Memorial. By all reports he will be our future star guest speaker.

There will be a happy reunion when we go to Brisbane next year. They are our hosts with the tournament being held at the Gold Coast. Details as soon as available from Lloyd Holloway. Maybe we can reverse the photo-finish.

RAILS BOOKMAKER ... A PLEASING PERSONALITY

Bill Hurley stands on the rails and bets interstate — all courses. He cut his bookmaking teeth up Newcastle way, graduating through the provincials to where he is today — in the top bracket of operators. A very forthright, "pleasant man to do business with" — as they say in the classics. He supports the control of racing by the AJC; in particular the operation of chief steward John Schreck. "He's good for racing", he observed. Bill is concerned about the crowds or lack of them at the races. "Champion racehorses bring the patrons — so we want more good horses". Melbourne's weather which has been of better pattern lately than Sydney and is a contributing factor to provide more even form down south. "It gives the punter a better chance to gauge a horse's performance", he went on to say. "It makes it easier for the racegoer to select his chances". "Of course", says Bill, "race viewing on TV and TAB betting has taken people from the courses — a lot find it the easy way — and don't have admission and travelling outlays before they start betting". Bill would like to play more golf at The Lakes where he is a member but manages a game of tennis with mutual friends Bruce McHugh and George Rohanna when the opportunity permits. Happily married to Patricia with 16 year-old Vanessa and son Brett has just moved into the commercial law field. So when you go racing and want an interstate wager — walk up and introduce yourself — you'll get real service and attention. — Os Bates.

ALITALIA'S FIRST CLASS AND BUSINESS CLASS

Business Class – to other airlines, it's first class. But to Alitalia it's Business Class – up front in the 747. In Alitalia's Business Class you are seated four across, that is two seats on either side of the wide aisle – giving you plenty of room to relax. And you'll enjoy a very high standard of service in an atmosphere that is quiet and relaxed. Alitalia's Business Class caters for the needs of the discerning traveller.

First Class – or "Top Class" as it is called on Alitalia because it is superior First Class. You will be seated in an exclusive area of the 747 being the upper deck where there are only 12 seats. "Top Class" signifies a return to the intimate, exclusive connotation of deluxe travel and to enhance this feeling Alitalia commissioned the design of special seats known as Dreamerettes, which recline to 60°. In Top Class you receive continuous top quality service and the undivided attention of cabin attendants.

If you're going to Europe then there are a lot of good reasons to fly into Rome with Alitalia. Not only will you be travelling in the comfort and style of a first class airline, but look at all the other benefits:

Ask about—

- FIRST CLASS RETURN FARE $?
- BUSINESS CLASS RETURN FARE $?

STOPOVERS:

- You can enjoy stopovers en route, like SINGAPORE AND BOMBAY
- ■ Yes, fly free in Europe

Don't make your final travel decision to Europe until you talk to me about what we can do for you via Rome with Alitalia. Call in and see me at the Club or:
